HOLY FAMILY STEWARDSHIP SURVEY

Time, treasure, talent...

The New Year brings with it resolutions. Have you thought about a resolution concerning your parish life? This is a challenging area, but it is one that needs constant attention, because there is so much that a parish needs done that takes place behind the scenes. Liturgies do not just happen; they take planning and people to make them happen. Whether it is church decorations, choirs, ushers, or lectors; whether it is Eucharistic ministers, hospital or nursing home ministry, helping with SCRIP sales (no, you do not need to have kids in PCS to sell SCRIP) or volunteering with CCD or a school program, there are many and varying needs in an active parish. Although this is not an all-encompassing list, it is a good start. With this in mind, I would like to ask you to prayerfully consider your gifts and talents, and where they can be put to use. This is not about being comfortable where we are, but to stretch ourselves and see where we are needed, even if it is in an area we are not at ease.
