YES, I WAS WEARING A HELMET

Thank you for all the cards and letters, prayers and encouragement for my recovery after my accident on Memorial Day. Not how I planned a leisurely cruise through our beautiful hills and valleys of Southwest Wisconsin, but I guess we never can know how each day or moment will turn out. And yes, I was wearing all the protective gear one should, including a helmet, gloves and jacket. It is a time of learning humility and accepting others to offer their service so I may heal. A difficult lesson, but one we all learn in different ways in our lives.

My recovery seems to make good progress, but is a long process. I will be limited to no weight on my ankle for a full 6 weeks, and then will need some physical therapy. As we work through this, we have been assigned a transitional deacon to be with us at Holy Family parish. Deacon Mark Miller arrived during this past week, and will remain here at least until the final stage of my recovery. I look forward to working with Dcn. Mark this summer, as we have ample baptisms, weddings and funerals that will keep him busy. Please be patient with him, and I ask your understanding if I am not able to be personally present at some of these important events in our faith lives. Please welcome Deacon Mark to Holy Family Parish. Below is a short biography of Deacon Mark.

Be assured of my prayers for you as well.
God bless, Fr. Jim

Dear Friends:

Please allow me to introduce myself. My name is Dcn. Mark Miller, and I am a transitional deacon studying for the priesthood for the Diocese of La Crosse. As part of my training, I will be with you for a period of time. My home parish is St. Raymond of Penafort in Brackett. My parents are Michael and Cherie, and I have a brother, Brian.

I am a recent graduate of Mundelein Seminary (Mundelein, IL), and prior to that I graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire (B.S. in Economics). After graduation from college I worked for a period of time as a Business Analyst and Economic Forecaster. My interests include: Classical Music (both listening and playing various instruments), literature, architecture, art, and running (when the weather is decent).

Please know that I am here to serve you in whatever way I am able to do so. I'm looking forward to my time here and to meeting you. Please keep me in prayer that I grow in holiness, and I will pray for you as well that we all become the men and women that we're called to be.

Cordially,
Dcn. Mark Miller
